Congratulations!

You are the proud viewer of an Archivistrix Coloring Book PDF. This coloring book, as a collection of my older work, is available completely free! If you feel so inspired, you may visit ellenmillion.com and leave a tip valued at whatever you feel the hours of coloring joy this book might bring you are worth, or check out the titles I have available in print.

What can you do with this PDF?

- *Print it and color it! As many times as you like!
- *Color it digitally! As many times as you like!
- *Print an image, color it, and put it on a card (etc.) to give away.
- *Have a coloring party and let your friends each color a page or two.
- *Write a story or poetry inspired by the artwork. (I'd love to read it!)
- *Copy and share this file with a friend!

What can't you do with this PDF?

- *Profit off of it. No reselling copies of this coloring book, or printing these images on products for sale, or licensing them for sale by someone else.
- *Take credit for it. If you'd like to post your colored version at a webpage (Facebook, Deviantart, whatever!), I am fine with that, as long as you are very clear that you did the coloring of Ellen Million's linework. A link to my webpage (ellenmillion.com) is appreciated, but not required.
- *Make copies generally available for download. You can send copies to individuals, but if you want a lot of people to know about it, please send them to my site: ellenmillion.com
